

MOVING POST

The material on this website and in this document, whilst it may include some information on matters that are legally binding on clergy, lay ministers and other lay officers and volunteers, should be generally understood as guidance and for information unless it explicitly states otherwise. In particular, it should not be construed as forming part of any employment contract.

For clergy who are deployed under common tenure you are required to give at least three months notice of your intention to leave your post as set out in your statement of particulars. It is expected that clergy who have the freehold will also give at least three months notice to the bishop.

Guidance on vacating the benefice property is given in the diocesan property handbook.
