Splintered Messiah

I don't want a splintered Messiah in a sweat-stained, greasy grey robe I want a new one I couldn't take this one to parties people would say 'who's your friend?'
I'd give an embarrassed giggle and change the subject
If I took him home
I'd have to bandage his hands
The neighbours would think he's a football hooligan
I don't want his cross in the hall it doesn't go with the wallpaper I don't want him standing there like a sad ballet dancer with holes in his tights I want a different Messiah streamlined and inoffensive I want one from a catalogue who's as quiet as a monastery I want a package tour Messiah not one who takes me to Golgotha I want a King of Kings with blow-waves in his hair
I don't want the true Christ
I wanna false one.
