

Resources for Exploring Vocation

Reading

Sr Margaret Magdalen	Grove S105: Vocation: exploring call and identity	Grove Books
Gerard W. Hughes	God of Surprises	DLT 1985
Timothy Radcliffe	What is the Point of Being a Christian?	Continuum 2005
Francis Spufford	Unapologetic	Faber & Faber 2012
Jeff Lucas	Going Public	Authentic 2008
John Adair	How to Find Your Vocation	Canterbury 2000
Andy Flanagan	Those Who Show Up	Muddy Pearl 2015
Esther de Waal	Seeking God: The Way of St Benedict	Fount 1984
Cathy Rowling & Paula Gooder	Reader Ministry Explored	SPCK 2009
Lillian Daniel & Martin Copenhaver	This Odd and Wondrous Calling	Eerdmans 2009
Ed. Charles Richardson	This Is Our Calling	SPCK 2004
Emma Percy	What Clergy Do: Especially When It Looks like Nothing	SPCK, 2014

Websites

www.cofe-ministry.org.uk

The Church of England's web hub for matters relating to vocation and ministry.

www.callwaiting.org.uk

Church of England website encouraging vocations to ordained ministry.

www.cpas.org.uk

The Church Pastoral Aid Society website, with a wide range of resources for exploring vocation. Type "vocation" into their search engine.

www.here-i-am.org.uk

Traditional Anglican vocations initiative

Further help and advice:

Tim Jones, Diocesan Director of Ordinands and New Ministries, tim.jones@cofesuffolk.org