

What do you find through church?

Fulfilment

Coming together and helping people across the generations

Maxine Simpson, Volunteer

The Lightwave Community

Maxine wanted to do something useful so she joined the Lightwave Christian community, working together in rural villages helping people across the generations.

Maxine came to faith through her charity work. The combination of community input and exploring her own beliefs has brought personal fulfilment, reduced anxiety and helped put things into perspective.

