The Generous Church Conference

Last Saturday, more than 55 guests gathered with Bishop Graeme; Archdeacons David and Rich; Gary Peverley, Diocesan Secretary; diocesan staff; and other participants for a day focused on living a generous life in our communities. The event featured three inspiring keynote speakers, each offering a unique perspective on giving, fundraising, and generosity: Grant Forrest, CEO of the Parish Giving Scheme, Canon Jonathan de Bernhardt

Wood, Director of Giving at the Church of England's National Giving Team and Judi Newman, CEO of St Elizabeth's Hospice. Attendees also took part in a series of well-attended workshops that provided practical advice and support on a range of topics including grant applications, digital giving, stewardship campaigns, Parish Giving Scheme, banking, and more. The day left many encouraged and equipped with new ideas and tools to foster a culture of generosity within their communities.

One attendee said the conference was "a good opportunity to meet colleagues across diocese. A good day - well spent and learnt lots."

Gary Peverley, Diocesan Secretary said "One of the most important and valued aspects of the Church of England in Suffolk is to get together and learn together. Saturday was a wonderful example and it was good to see a roomful of people joining together thinking about generosity".

Resources from the conference will be available for all through Insight and we will advise you through eNews and other channels when they are ready. If you need help and support in the meantime, please contact the Parish Resources Team.

Together we Explore at the Suffolk Show - Free
Family Treasure
Trail

This year at the Suffolk

Show, with thanks to the Suffolk Agricultural Association, we are partnering with eight other exhibitors to launch the first Suffolk Show Family Treasure Trail.

The trail will start and finish at our marquee (stand 601) and the trail features questions to be answered at the following stands: Army Air Corps, Dennington Hall Farms, Ipswich Town Football Club, Radio Suffolk, Rural Coffee Caravan, Suffolk Horse Society, Suffolk New College and VE 80. If you find out all the answers you will receive a small prize and be entered into a draw to win a private Tower tour for up to six people at St Edmundsbury Cathedral and a £60 voucher for Pilgrims' Kitchen.

Tim Holder, Diocesan Director of Engagement said "The aim of the trail is to encourage engagement across the whole Suffolk Show site. It has a real family feel and a focus on our love of Suffolk and learning more about Suffolk together. We are delighted that the trail is free of charge and grateful to our partners who have supported us to achieve this, including Hudson Signs who printed the signs. I am thrilled that so many organisations have agreed to partner with us and support the trail and I hope that I will see you on the trail next week at the show."

Want a bigger adventure?

The free trail is linked to the Suffolk Historic Churches Trust who run Ride and Stride every year. In September you can join an even bigger adventure and find sponsors to help raise funds for your church (and SHCT!) as you walk or cycle around our churches.

Tim continued. "If you enjoy the family trail at the Suffolk Show we are encouraging people to take up the bigger adventure to take part in Ride and Stride to raise funds for our churches. Last year Ride and Stride raised £200,000 and your donations helped to repair, restore and improve beautiful Suffolk churches, church halls and meeting rooms of all denominations." Find out more here.

Village church celebrates £150,000 project to restore its bells

Worshippers are celebrating a successful £150,000 campaign to restore the bells at their ancient Suffolk church which feature at everything from weddings and funerals to Remembrance Sunday. The restoration of church bells at Fornham St Martin, near Bury St Edmunds, was celebrated with a dedicated service on Sunday 28 May, attended by Bishop Graeme to commemorate the upgrade.

Bishop Graeme paid tribute to the parishioners, villagers, donors and bell ringers who had supported the fundraising initiative. Bishop Graeme said: "This was an ambitious but very necessary project for Fornham St Martin and I was delighted to attend the rededication service, and view the results of everyone's hard work. Now the bells can ring out once more, welcoming everyone to a variety of church and community events with a joyous and uplifting sound".

Articles of Enquiry: Each year we ask churchwardens to fill in a short survey about their Church and Parish.
